THE WALK OF KINDNESS is a pilgrimage and fundraising project created by homelessness charity, Emmaus Norfolk & Waveney. Companions (residents) living at Emmaus have all experienced homelessness; this summer 4 companions, are walking 450 miles from Wales to South Norfolk to help other people have a safe home at Emmaus. They will be raising money to open a social enterprise B&B on the former All Hallows site in Ditchingham. Support the Walk of Kindness by sponsoring a mile or doing a fundraising challenge. For more details see <https://emmaus.org.uk/norfolk-waveney/wok/>

This is an excellent charity doing wonderful work with homeless people, they have a branch in Cambridge with a very good charity shop on the A10, I have furnished two presbyteries from them, please support them if you can.
